

SIGN	POSSIBLE BEHAVIOURS
Stumbling or staggering	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • has difficulty standing upright • has difficulty walking a straight line • bumps into furniture and other patrons
Poor hand-eye coordination	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • fumbles for items like cigarettes, change, ID • reaches for drink and misses or spills it
Changes or difficulties in speech	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • speaks too loudly for the situation • changes volume of speech (up or down) when there is no reason to suggest that a change is necessary; for example, speaks softly when there is no need to be secretive • speaking unusually slowly or rapidly • has difficulty speaking distinctly; words are blurred or run together • cannot get a word out or uses the wrong word
Nausea and sweating	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • looks nauseous or needs to throw up • sweats excessively, inconsistent with the surrounding temperature or conditions • sweats too much to be justified by nervousness, physical exertion or other logical factors
Sleepiness and breathing changes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • has tired, heavy or closed eyes • has a placid, fixed gaze • nods off, then jerks head upright • breathes noticeably slower • breathes shallowly or weakly
Blurred vision	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • has trouble reading menus or signs • cannot fix eyes on an object • has bloodshot eyes (to any degree)
Overconfident or acts inappropriately	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • boasts unrealistically about what he or she can do; inflated sense of confidence • makes inappropriate comments to server or other customers • acts out inappropriate behaviour; reasoning is impaired • makes unusual personal requests • exaggerates personal importance
Confused or less alert	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • places an order and then forgets what was ordered • has difficulty understanding what is said • requires too long to respond to questions or to react to events; for example, when asked to place an order • has difficulty paying attention to the conversation • gets easily distracted or is off-topic
Aggressiveness	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • aggressive speech • threatens physical assault • is argumentative and uncompromising