

INDIGENOUS TOURISM LABOUR MARKET RESEARCH

PROVINCIAL TOWN HALL SERIES ZOOM - 4 SESSIONS

Funding provided through the Canada-British Columbia
Labour Market Development Agreement.

NOVEMBER 25, 26, DECEMBER 1, 2, 2020

In these sessions you will learn of the research findings, provide comment on this research, and share ideas on how Indigenous tourism operators and people can succeed in working and building careers in Indigenous tourism leading up to the development of the first BC Indigenous Tourism Labour Strategy.

#1 - Overcoming Indigenous Tourism Labour Challenges and Advancing Indigenous People Wed, Nov 25, 2020 from 2:30 pm to 4:00 pm PT

What are the challenges to attracting and retaining Indigenous labour? Research team experts share research findings, with industry experts.

#2 - Culture and Indigenous People and Nations in Tourism Thu, Nov 26 from 2:30 pm to 4:00 pm PT

Hear research findings and perspectives from Indigenous tourism insiders - an employer, employee and youth.

FREE! Register and attend a full session for a chance to win one of three $100 draw prizes each event.

REGISTER ONLINE AT EVENTBRITE:

<https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/indigenous-tsm-bc-labour-series-attracting-a-workforce-in-uncertain-times-tickets-127410053901>

*Download the Zoom APP before the sessions

#3 - Indigenous Tourism Labour Smart Practices Tue, Dec 1 from 2:30 pm to 4:00 pm PT

Industry experts advise on how to attract, retain and train Indigenous people, and lessons learned, including succession planning for employers and operators.

#4 - Future of Labour in Indigenous tourism Wed, Dec 2 from 2:30 pm to 4:00 pm PT

When will tourism recover to pre-Covid numbers? Economist Roslyn Kunin and Lee Gan share labour forecasts, with a panel of industry experts covering where we were and where it's going.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Indigenous Tourism - operators, employees, students & youth

Indigenous Nations - Bands & tribal councils - economic & business development officers, employment, education

Indigenous Agencies - business & financial institutes, Indigenous Skills Employment & Training

Tourism Industry - DMOs, Industry Sectors

Training and Education - post-secondary schools, government agencies