

COR Toolkit:

An Employer Guide to
COR Certification

EMPLOYERS' ADVISERS OFFICE

<https://link.go2hr.ca/training-001>

The Employers' Advisers Office offers employer seminars related to the following topics:

- Management responsibility for safety.
- Hazard identification/risk assessment.
- Safe work procedures.
- Inspections.
- Incident/accident investigations.
- Training and instruction of employees.
- Occupational health and safety program administration.
- Joint health and safety committees.

WORKSAFEBC DATABASE OF TRAINING PROVIDERS

<https://link.go2hr.ca/training-002>

WorkSafeBC maintains a database of training providers across British Columbia who offer courses or training related to the following topics:

- Management responsibility for safety.
- Hazard identification/risk assessment.
- Safe work procedures.
- Refusal of unsafe work.
- First aid.
- WHMIS.
- Inspections.
- Incident/accident investigations.
- Training and instruction of employees.
- Joint health and safety committees.

CANADIAN CENTRE FOR OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY (CCOHS)

<https://link.go2hr.ca/training-003>

CCOHS offers classroom courses and e-Learning related to the following topics:

- Hazard identification/risk assessment.
- Safe work procedures.
- WHMIS.
- Inspections.
- Incident/accident investigations.
- Training and instruction of employees.
- Joint health and safety committees.

GO2HR

<https://link.go2hr.ca/training-004>

go2HR has information on training and education of employees.

BC FOREST SAFETY COUNCIL

<https://link.go2hr.ca/training-005>

The BC Forest Safety Council offers basic and advanced courses on incident/accident investigations.